

Light Metal Age

The image features a variety of aluminum extrusion profiles. On the left, there are three teal-colored cylindrical profiles of different diameters. In the center, a silver-colored profile is shown in a cross-section, revealing a complex, multi-fluted internal structure. To the right, there are several yellow-colored profiles, including a large, solid rectangular one and a smaller, fluted one. The background is a plain, light gray.
